

MY DAUGHTER

Louise Catherine Harries

The days drag on the hours a blur
Few moments pass without thinking of her
A real special soul was she
The way to survive ? someone please give the key
This world this generous soul could not take
The final road for sanity's sake

But had she known the unbearable grief felt by all because of choice
Oh what we would give to hear that oh' so familiar voice,
I pray some higher power will grant me the years 'please;
If it takes my lifetime -- I will find you Louise.
So through it all I take heart;
I have come to believe that one day- some dimension some place;
That at last my spirits will be lifted;
To see those eyes. that smile .that beautiful face.

Forever in my heart
